

Drama meeting minutes for Sept. 20, 2011

A mandatory parent meeting was held prior to the board meeting. The highlights included: 1) each child will need to supply a garment bag and a plastic bin for their costumes for Beauty and the Beast; 2) the drama department is borrowing a lot of costumes from the Reston Community Players. The audience of parents and students were encouraged to support RCP. A flyer highlighting their shows this year was distributed. 3) due to the high production cost a cast fee of $25.00 will be collected from each cast member.

Membership forms for the drama boosters will be available on back to school night. Please encourage parents to join.

We will check with Kate (the thespian president) about adult supervision on the homecoming truck.

Ellen Riley a teacher in the fine arts department lost a parent. The board asked the secretary to please send a sympathy card.

The boosters have a budget of $2500.00 for the fall show. One hundred dollars was approved to spend on trinkets. Trinkets will be purchased by Lorie Ellis. Amy Peterson will find out from the health department what home made edibles are allowed to be sold by the drama boosters. We will purchase the flowers from Costco for the show.

The Princess and the Pea will be the children's show.

The improv team is currently going thru auditions.

The creative coffeehouse is not yet scheduled but when it is it will be held at Art Space.

Zoe asked the board for $100.00 for the engraving of thespians names on plaques. This was tabled until the next meeting. .

The tech students will carry a balloon and pass out flyers at the Reston Thanksgiving Parade.
